A HAPPY HOUSEHOLD

This home is shared by four friendly residents (aged 59 – 76 male and female) who enjoy a balance of shared and independent living. They come together for meals and some social activities while enjoying their own independent routines.

The housemates are looking for someone with a compatible, easy-going nature who values a harmonious home. Music is a shared passion among residents, making this a great fit for someone who enjoys a home filled with good tunes and friendly company.

The housemates are supported by an experienced, stable Araluen staff team with minimal use of agency staff. Staff are trained in Active Support, Epilepsy Management, Positive Behaviour Support & Dual Disability.
